

Discovery LEARNING CENTER PRESCHOOL

DISCOVER fun enrichment opportunities for your pre-K child!

The Discovery Learning Center is a parent-run, non-profit educational center which provides resources to preschool, homeschool, and traditionally schooled families. Parent-run activities are open to the community and include math, science, art, music, history, reading, and more. Drop in on a scheduled event or create one of your own.

Our educational lending library is a fantastic, money-saving resource, offering toys, construction sets, games, puzzles, and a wide variety of curriculum. Of special interest to pre-K families, we offer Montessori manipulatives, Waldorf curriculum, building toys, early and pre-reading activities, and early math materials, activities and games.

For your pre-K learner:

- Lending library of toys and games
- Parent-run activities and workshops
- Fee-based professional classes
- Free play and new friends

For homeschooling families:

- Homeschool support for parents
- Curriculum, science and math materials
- Parent-run K-8 classes and clubs
- Fun play with other homeschoolers
